THE MOUNT

Nineteen Hundred Fifty Six

REVEREND JOHN A. LYNCH, Principal

The "56" Mount is the showwindow of our school giving a clear view of "Mount Life." While it is produced by a group of students, it is representative of the work and activities of all the students of the Academy. Its theme is our Class Ring.

Looking back, we see the guiding light of Saint Joseph, our patron, glowing over all. May it continue to shine brightly; guiding us as we step from the well-paved road of high school on to the various paths of life.

REVEREND JOHN A. LYNCH, Principal
MISS MARGARET CANARY, Secretary

Not for today am I concerned. Today is a day of achievement and you are fittingly being congratulated. But five years from today—ten, twenty years from now, when you sit down to look over your old yearbook, then will you read what is written here? Your life will have settled then. Dreaming will be finished. The hard business of living will be a reality for you. Challenges and temptations will have left their scars, mistakes will have weakened you, success will have put new dangers in your path. On that day will you remember, Father Lynch prayed for you, prayed you would not have forgotten—that God loves you—is on your side, no matter what, if you'll only let Him be.

To Saint Joseph's care I commit you today but not for today—for every day as long as you live, begging only this to you—Go to Joseph—no matter what—go to Joseph. He will bring you to God and God will bring you to your Eternal Commencement.

May the blessing of Almighty God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, descend upon you and remain with you—forever.

Father Lynch

From their experience we profit

Our devoted teachers, counselors, and friends, instruct us in arts of life; guiding, shaping, and molding our characters, our way of thinking, and acting, so that in time we may assume the responsibilities of Catholic citizenship; helping us to understand the ideals of our American heritage. They have given, and are giving, and we hope they shall continue to give generously in time and gentle devotion.

The study of civilization is an important part of the work of Spanish classes. Here we have Anthony Gallo pointing out to Sister Mary Elizabeth, Paula Cassidy, Marita Peters, and Jon Mayo, the expanse of mission territory in South America, where future missionaries who can use the language may labor for souls.

Patriotism, the outstanding virtue of the Romans, is being taught by Sister Mary Edward, through the medium of Latin, to Carolyn Zagata, Daniel Woodward, Claire Perfetti, Lindell Abbott, and Nancy Parsons.

Learning to speak and write foreign languages,

A display of Rome and her heritage with Richard Tinney, John Stewart, Helen Crosby, and Wilma Hubbard doing the honors.

Sister Concepta observes while Patricia Marfuggi, Margaret Ponto and Marilyn Sheldon put their French assignment on the board.

English IV characters from short stories are brought to life by Matthew McDevitt, Mary Ann D'Aniello, Regina Raymond, Marie Mayer and James Robinson.

to expand in knowledge,

Father Ready, head of the Religion department, gives James Timbers, Theresa Dalto, James Egelston, Elizabeth Gill and Marilee Daly a talk on the life of Christ.

Sister Julia Marie explains to Margaret Shanahan and Richard McNulty the important place of machines in business.

Typing with speed and accuracy is the goal of Lucretia Preedom, Paul Daly and Eileen Hughes.

Sister Margaret Mary helps Robert Graves, Harold Looby, Patricia Pomykala, Patricia Bove and Shirley Crouch solve problems in General Business.

Sister Helena explains the different parts of the respiratory system to Henry Rabtoy, Scott Lee, Barbara Jeanotte, Patricia Polzello and Kathy Canney.

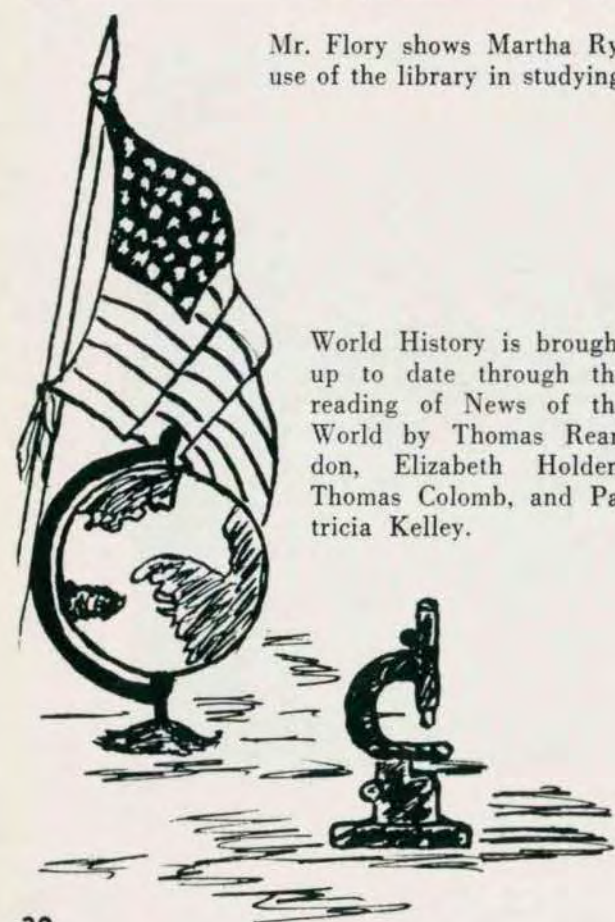

Under the supervision of Sister Agnes Marie, Paul Loseby, Charles Tesconi, James Paolucci, Helen Crosby, James Robinson, Mary Bellomo, and Mary Ann D'Aniello construct models for use in Solid Geometry.

to explore science, and understand world affairs,

Mr. Flory shows Martha Ryan, Ruth Perry, Regina Raymond and Helen Crosby the important use of the library in studying American History.

World History is brought up to date through the reading of News of the World by Thomas Rear-don, Elizabeth Holden, Thomas Colomb, and Patricia Kelley.

to acquire exactness,

Participation in School Organizations

THE BAND SALUTES

Miss Ruth Perry is the proud recipient of the John Philip Sousa Band Award, given for the first time here at the Academy. The Award, of a Certificate and a Pin, is given in recognition for outstanding achievement and interest in instrumental music, for singular merit in loyalty and cooperation, and for displaying, generally, those high qualities of conduct which school instrumental music strives to impart, and by nomination of fellow band members and confirmation of band director and school officials.

In her fourth consecutive year of faithful service to the band, Ruth is yet to miss a practice or an exhibition. She is proud of her Band.

RUTH PERRY

M. S. J. vs R. H. S. at the annual game on Nov. 11. The bands pay tribute to their country and school as they perform together at half-time.

The Marching Band shows its training at such times as the Veterans Day Parade (shown left), Columbus Day, at the Majority of our football games, at the Winter Carnival, and for many other incidents.

Under the leadership of Drum Majorette Frances O'Connell and Mr. Richard Oxley, Director, the Band has given good representation of M.S.J.

develops a sense of co-operation

The Josephite Chapter of the National Honor Society of Mount Saint Joseph Academy for the year of 1955-56. These students excel in Character, Leadership, Scholarship, and Service. To be a member of the Honor Society the student must have at least an average of "B." The Society determines those eligible and the final choice is made by an Electoral Council made up of the Faculty.

This year the Josephite Chapter is sponsoring an award: The Josephite Chapter of the National Honor Society SERVICE AWARD for outstanding service to the school on a four year basis. The award runs parallel to the Green Key Award. It is offered to that senior boy or girl who has given outstanding service to the school.

The Student Council is an organization made up of a group of students each elected by his classmates. Besides these elected members, the presidents of the classes are also on the Council. The representatives are elected because of their scholastic standing, leadership, character and dependability.

Some of the various duties of the Student Council are to manage the finances of the student body; to elect monitors; and to consider and make recommendations on problems that may arise in the school.

The Council had many projects for the year; and under the guidance of Father Lynch and our Faculty Advisor, Sister Anna Marie; and with the cooperation of the student body they carried out a successful program.

The Catholic Student Mission Crusade is an organization for the purpose of helping missions at home and in the foreign countries.

The celebrating of the Church Unity Octave, and the contribution of the Daily Breakfasts for those receiving Holy Eucharist; as well as collecting stamps for the missions are samples of the work of the Mission Crusade.

Each member is doing a small part in carrying out the Crusade motto: "The Sacred Heart for the World; The World for the Sacred Heart."

The '56 "Mount Staff" has worked hard trying to capture the highlights of our school year and meeting our deadlines. This book could not have been if it weren't for the untiring and co-operative staff and our Faculty Advisor, Sister Julia Marie, who encouraged us in producing "The Mount."

Miss Margaret Canary, our Business Advisor and the business board, helped us to reach our goal to make this book possible. We hope that this book will bring you many happy memories.

Dramatics, under the direction of Sr. Mary Imelda, have proved very helpful to students of speech. In high school "the play-er is the thing." Participants make the most of the opportunity to develop poise, better speech habits, and a sense of achievement all of which contribute to personality development.

"You killed him." Maureen Eddy and Anne Lovett during the climax of the Junior Play.

"Look at these trousers!" It was a hectic night for Phyllis Moscatello and David Gouchoe who had the leading roles in the Sophomore One Act Play.

Ruth Perry, Margaret McDevitt, Mary Swahn, and (not shown) Patricia Bartholomew, attended Girls' State held in Montpelier, Vermont.

The following students were chosen by a faculty vote, as the most representative students of Mt. St. Joseph Academy, the school year, 1955-1956.

I am sure that any student who attended either Boys' State or Girls' State will do his or her part in the proper development of the government of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

The Acads opened the 55-56 hoop season with impressive pre-league victories over Bellows Free Academy and a highly favored St. Peter's of Saratoga. They lost to a slick St. Mary's outfit but came rebounding back with an easy win over star-studded Alumni five. The Green Wave ended a satisfactory pre-league season with a heartbreaking loss to Cathedral.

The Adacs lost to Ben-hi, Bellows Falls, Springfield, and Rutland High School.

The second portion of the SVL season was "do or die" for the Mounties. With the chips down the Acads came back to climb from 7th place into a tie for 4th.

The Mounties defeated Bennington High School in a playoff at Manchester for the right to enter the Northern Tournament at Barre.

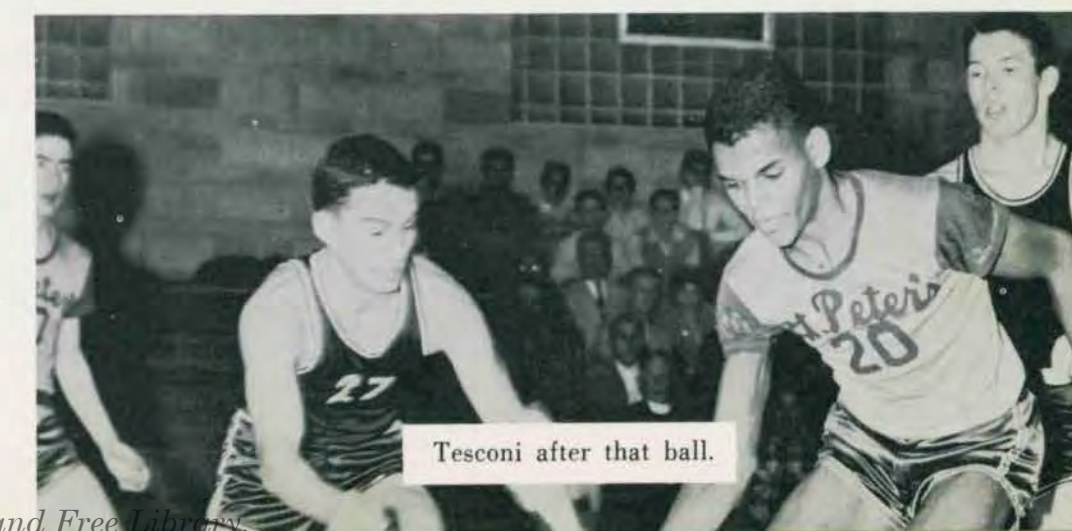

The finals pitted M.S.J. against a smooth quintet from Montpelier. The Mounties lost 63 to 41.

Education at M. S. J. aims at the development of the whole man as these pictures evidence. Mentally alert students enter the portals of the Academy in September, 1956, to begin the school year, while the Freshman Reception proves that social development is not overlooked at our Alma Mater. Our athletes show their competitive spirit as they play against Rutland for the City title. Assemblies provide opportunities for emotional adjustment as exemplified in the Advent assembly presented by Room 11. But most important of all, Catholic education permits spiritual growth; hence, Annual Student Retreats—given this year by Fathers Lynch and Ready.

M. S. J. vs. Rutland in city series

During the Basketball season, the students of the Academy show school spirit by supporting their team. We honor our patron, Saint Joseph, by having special devotions to him during the month of March. We're all familiar with Pat Bartholomew's voice giving the Academy announcements. The year has passed all too quickly, and now, the month of June finds us proud of our work well done. Mary Ann D'Aniello, Salutatorian, and Margaret Lawrence, Valedictorian, achieve the highest honors of our class.
